

Dee Snider, the show's host and moderator, is more than just a rock star. From fronting the notorious Twisted Sister to speaking before the Senate at age 30, Dee's life has brought him to heights of fame followed by desperate struggle. Now a husband of 25 years and a father of four, these life experiences combined with Dee's magnetic personality provide for compelling talk radio, in both his personal story-telling and humorous interaction with the other members of Dee Snider Radio and various in-studio guests.
